UNITED NATIONS
CENTRE AGAINST APARTHEID

Information Note No. SCA/SP/90/1 5 January 1990

THE NAME OF PETER RENNERT HAS BEEN DELETED FROM THE REGISTER OF SPORTS CONTACTS WITH SOUTH AFRICA

The Special Committee against Apartheid has decided to delete the name of Mr. Peter Rennert, a tennis player from the United States of America, from the Register of Sports Contacts with South Africa.

Mr. Rennert, in his letter of December 1989 to the Special Committee, states:

"I, Peter Rennert, pledge to you and your Committee, that I will not compete in South Africa while the system of apartheid prevails. I have seen and felt what oppression does to the minds and souls of both sides. I look forward to the day that apartheid is abolished."

(Sgd.) Peter Rennert

UNITED NATIONS
CENTRE AGAINST APARTHEID

Information Note No. SCA/SP/90/2

5 January 1990

THE NAME OF PETER PALANDJIAN HAS BEEN DELETED FROM THE REGISTER OF SPORTS CONTACTS WITH SOUTH AFRICA

The Special Committee against Apartheid has decided to delete the name of Mr. Peter Palandjian, a tennis player from the United States of America, from the Register of Sports Contacts with South Africa.

Mr. Palandjian, in his letter of 18 December 1989 to the Special Committee, states:

"I am writing to inform you of my pledge not to compete in South Africa. I would like to be removed from the United Nations Register of Sports Contacts with South Africa.

"I have my own views and philosophy on what must be done to correct the social and political state of South Africa, and for my own reasons will not play professional tennis, nor sport, there again."

(Sgd.) Peter Palandjian

UNITED NATIONS
CENTRE AGAINST APARTHEID

Information Note No. SCA/SP/90/3 5 January 1990

THE NAME OF KEVIN W. LUBBERS HAS BEEN DELETED FROM THE REGISTER OF SPORTS CONTACTS WITH SOUTH AFRICA

The Special Committee against Apartheid has decided to delete the name of Mr. Kevin Lubbers, a tennis player from the United States of America, from the Register of Sports Contacts with South Africa.

Mr. Lubbers, in his letter of 17 December 1989 to the Special Committee, states:

"...I am requesting that my name be taken off the United Nations Register of Sports Contacts with South Africa. I pledge not to compete in South Africa while the system of apartheid still prevails in that country."

(Sgd.) Kevin W. Lubbers

UNITED NATIONS
CENTRE AGAINST APARTHEID

Information Note No. SCA/SP/90/4 5 January 1990

THE NAME OF STEVEN L. KIRSON HAS BEEN DELETED FROM THE REGISTER OF SPORTS CONTACTS WITH SOUTH AFRICA

The Special Committee against Apartheid has decided to delete the name of Mr. Steven L. Kirson, a tennis player from the United States of America, from the Register of Sports Contacts with South Africa.

Mr. Kirson, in his letter of 16 December 1989 to the Special Committee, states:

"... I am strongly opposed to the apartheid government in South Africa, and I will not play in South Africa in the future as long as apartheid exists in that country.

"I am grateful for the opportunity to remove my name from the register and correspondingly my association with a country whose government oppresses its people."

(Sgd.) Steven L. Kirson

United Nations, New York 10017

READEX FICHE

UNITED NATIONS
CENTRE AGAINST APARTHEID

Information Note No. SCA/SP/90/5 12 January 1990

THE NAME OF CRAIG KARDON HAS BEEN DELETED FROM THE REGISTER OF SPORTS CONTACTS WITH SOUTH AFRICA

The Special Committee against Apartheid has decided to delete the name of Mr. Craig Kardon, a tennis player from the United States of America, from the Register of Sports Contacts with South Africa.

Mr. Kardon, in his letter of 28 December 1989 to the Special Committee, states:

"This is to inform you of my wish that my name be deleted from the register of those athletes who have competed in South Africa.

"At that time, in 1984, I was unaware that a sports boycott existed. But I pledge that as long as a system of apartheid exists in South Africa, I will not compete there."

(Sgd.) Craig Kardon

United Nations, New York 10017

UNITED NATIONS

CENTRE AGAINST APARTHEID

Information Note No. SCA/SP/90/6

30 January 1990

THE NAME OF JONATHAN LOMAS HAS BEEN DELETED FROM THE REGISTER OF SPORTS CONTACTS WITH SOUTH AFRICA

The Special Committee against Apartheid has decided to delete the name of Mr. Jonathan Lomas, a golf player from the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, from the Register of Sports Contacts with South Africa.

Mr. Lomas, in his letter of 29 December 1989 to the Special Committee, states:

"I undertake not to take part in any event in South Africa until apartheid is abolished.

"I shall be very grateful if you could delete my name off the U.N. Register."

(Sgd.) Jonathan Lomas

UNITED NATIONS
CENTRE AGAINST APARTHEID

Information Note No. SCA/SP/90/7 30 January 1990

THE NAME OF HOWARD ENDELMAN HAS BEEN DELETED FROM THE REGISTER OF SPORTS CONTACTS WITH SOUTH AFRICA

The Special Committee against Apartheid has decided to delete the name of Mr. Howard Endelman, a tennis player from the United States of America, from the Register of Sports Contacts with South Africa.

Mr. Endelman, in his letter of 5 January 1990 to the Special Committee, states:

"I am writing to request removal of my name from the United Nations Register of Sports Contacts with South Africa.

"At the time I played tennis in South Africa in February 1988, I was unaware of the sports boycott of South Africa.

"I will not compete in South Africa while the system of apartheid still prevails in that country.

"I am fully against apartheid and am hereby making a personal statement in favour of achieving a more humane future for the majority of the people of South Africa."

(Sgd.) Howard Endelman

UNITED NATIONS
CENTRE AGAINST APARTHEID

Information Note No. SCA/SP/90/8 1 February 1990

THE NAME OF SAM MOORE HAS BEEN DELETED FROM THE REGISTER OF SPORTS CONTACTS WITH SOUTH AFRICA

The Special Committee against Apartheid has decided to delete the name of Mr. Sam G. Moore, a tennis player from the United States of America, from the Register of Sports Contacts with South Africa.

Mr. Moore, in his letter received on 30 January 1990 to the Special Committee, states:

"I would like my name, Sam Moore, deleted from the United Nations Register of Sports Contacts with South Africa.

"I pledge that I will not compete in South Africa while the system of apartheid still prevails in that country."

(Sgd.) Sam G. Moore

UNITED NATIONS
CENTRE AGAINST APARTHEID

Information Note No. SCA/SP/90/9 6 February 1990

THE NAME OF RICHARD WALKER HAS BEEN DELETED FROM THE REGISTER OF SPORTS CONTACTS WITH SOUTH AFRICA

The Special Committee against Apartheid would like to make a correction on SCA/SP/89/31 of 25 September 1989. The name deleted should have been that of Mr. Richard Walker, an equestrian from the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, instead of Mr. Richard Walker, a polo player from Australia.

UNITED NATIONS

CENTRE AGAINST APARTHEID

Information Note SCA/SP/90/10

16 March 1990

THE NAME OF HAROLD SOLOMON HAS BEEN DELETED FROM THE REGISTER OF SPORTS CONTACTS WITH SOUTH AFRICA

The Special Committee against Apartheid has decided to delete the name of Mr. Harold Solomon, a tennis player from the United States of America, from the Register of Sports Contacts with South Africa.

Mr. Solomon, in his letter of 3 November 1989 to the Special Committee, states:

"...I will not be participating in any way with South Africa until the issue of apartheid is resolved. I, personally, am totally gainst apartheid and certainly do not endorse it in any way, shape or form. I support freedom for all people and equal rights under the law."

(Sgd.) Harold C. Solomon